

SIMULTANEOUS RELEASE

AUTHOR IS AN AWARD-WINNING JOURNALIST

Read by Laural Merlington

Category: History

Running Time: 18 hrs - Unabridged

Hardcover: March 2008 (60,000 Penguin Press)

Available: 03/07/2008

Territory: North America

Trade 9781400105977 14 Audio CD $39.99

Library 9781400135974 14 Audio CD $79.99

MP3 9781400155972 2 MP3-CD $29.99

A global affairs correspondent for more than three decades, Robin Wright has reported from more than 130 countries on six continents, working for the Los Angeles Times, the Sunday Times of London, CBS News, the Washington Post, and the Christian Science Monitor. She also has been a commentator for news programs on the major U.S. television networks and been published widely in American magazines like the New Yorker, the Atlantic Monthly, Foreign Affairs, and Foreign Policy.

Laural Merlington has recorded over 100 audiobooks and is the recipient of several AudioFile Earphones Awards. She has performed and directed for thirty years in theaters throughout the country. In addition to her extensive theater and voice-over work, Laural teaches college in her home state of Michigan.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Toll Free 877.782.6867

Fax 888.782.7821

www.tantor.com

Tantor Media, Inc.

2 Business Park Road

Old Saybrook, CT 06475

ROBIN WRIGHT

DREAMS AND SHADOWS

The Future of the Middle East

A magnificent reckoning with the extraordinary changes engulfing the Middle East, by one of our greatest reporters on the region.

Robin Wright first landed in the Middle East on October 6, 1973, the day the fourth Middle East war erupted. She has covered every country and most major crises in the region since then, through to the rise of al Qaeda and the U.S. invasion of Iraq. For all the drama of the past, however, the region's most decisive traumas are unfolding today as the Middle East struggles to deal with trends that have already reshaped the rest of the world. And for all the darkness, there is also hope. Some of the emerging trends give cause for greater optimism about the future of the Middle East than at any time since the first Arab-Israeli war in 1948.

Dreams and Shadows is an extraordinary tour de horizon of the new Middle East, with on-the-ground reportage of the ideas and movements driving change across the region—and the obstacles they confront. Through the powerful storytelling for which the author is famous, Dreams and Shadows ties together the players and events in Iraq, Iran, Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Morocco, Turkey, the Gulf states, and the Palestinian territories into a coherent vision of what lies ahead.

A marvelous field report from the center of the storm, the book is animated by the characters whose stories give the region's transformation its human immediacy and urgency. It is also rich with the history that brought us to this point. It is a masterpiece of the reporter's art and a work of profound and enduring insight.

KEY POINTS/MARKETING

- National publicity out of New York and Washington, D.C.
- National review attention
- Off-the-book page features in national and regional press
- In-house blog campaign targeting political and news-driven blogs
- Washington Post Best of 2008
- New York Times Best of 2008

PRAISE FOR DREAMS AND SHADOWS

"Fascinating...for anyone who likes true human drama."
—former U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright

"Dreams and Shadows is a lucid and comprehensive look at tumultuous events that have shaped the Middle East and will continue to chart its future."

—Vali Nasr, author of The Shia Revival